

Rockdale is a vibrant suburb located in the southern part of Sydney, New South Wales. Just 13 kilometres from the Sydney Central Business District, Rockdale offers a perfect blend of urban convenience and suburban charm.

The area boasts excellent transport links, including a major train station that connects to the city and beyond. With Rockdale Plaza, Brighton-Le-Sands beaches and extensive parklands, Rockdale has everything you need.

At the heart of each apartment is a generously sized, light-filled living and dining area that opens out onto a private balcony. The modern and accessible kitchen has stone bench tops and European appliances. Each apartment has an additional space for use as a guest bedroom or study.

The View offers sweeping panoramas across Botany Bay and the city skyline, with an average apartment size (internal area) of 76 square metres.
